NOTICE REGARDING TRANSFERRED CASES AND DEFAULT MOTIONS

You are hereby notified of your need to take additional action if you have pending default motions filed on this case.

If your case is transferred to the Utica office before the return date on your motion, you are required to file and serve an amended notice of default hearing.

The amended notice of default hearing must be captioned with the new case number, filed on the new case and must be returnable in Utica, NY on the next available Utica motion term designated for those counties.

All orders submitted after a case has been transferred must show the new case number in the caption and must be filed on the new case. Orders submitted with the old case number will not be acted upon.
